

Storeperson

- Market leading Australian manufacturer
- Dynamic and progressive environment
- Based in Lara

Air Radiators are a market leader in engineering and manufacturing providing engine cooling solutions to both domestic and international customers. Part of the larger family owned Adrad Group, we are committed to our customers, dedicated to our employees and focused on continued growth. With a long-term future vision, Air Radiators specialise in cooling systems to service global OEMs in the mobile equipment, military, mining, power generation and petrochemical industries.

The Role

This is a hands on role where you will be working within a small team receiving stock and distributing stock to production. You must be physically fit, hardworking, and self-motivated. You will also require an attention to detail and accuracy as well as being able to prioritise tasks.

Key responsibilities include, but are not limited to

- Receipting stock
- Inspect, test and measure goods
- Data Entry
- Fork Lift Operation
- Fill job bins following a job lists
- Distribution of stock
- Perform cycle stock takes
- Maintaining stock integrity
- Ensure all goods are stored safely
- Maintain MSDS data and ensure data sheets are available
- General materials/warehouse duties

Key skills and experience required

- Previous experience in materials/warehousing preferably in manufacturing
- Australian Drivers Licence
- Forklift license
- Intermediate computer skills
- High focus on quality, productivity and attention to detail
- Ability to work as part of a team
- Good communication and problem solving skills

Applications

Email to: recruitment@airrads.com.au with Store Person in the subject line.